WEEK 17 - 17.01.25

MESSAGE FROM THE HEADTEACHER

We have reached the end of another week and the children have been busy, busy busy! There are a number of events to be aware of in the next few weeks. First up is our computing showcase events. The children will be showing off their knowledge and we hope to have as many parents come as possible. Another event for your diary is the parent consultations towards the end of the term. The booking for these will open at the end of next week. Have a lovely weekend everyone! See you on Monday.
