

LAMBS LANE NEWS

WEEK 34 - 14.06.24

MESSAGE FROM THE HEADTEACHER

It has been another week of tests at Lambs Lane and in schools across the country. This time it has been year 1 and year 4 who have taken their phonics screening test and their multiplication check respectively. We were very proud of how they all approached the tests and we know they did their best.

Next week we are looking forward to welcoming Rachel Davis, a local artist to come and work with children across the school to create a combined peace of artwork.

From September 2024 parents will be able to book their own wraparound care via their Arbor account. Further information will follow next week but we would also like to invite you to our parents coffee morning on Friday 28th June where we will be available to show you live where on Arbor you are able to do this.

Lost Property

We appear to have a lost car key and what looks like a house key on a Land Rover grey lanyard hanging in the school office. If this belongs to you please pop by and collect it. It has been here for some time.

Ice Cream Man

On Friday 19th July there will be an ice-cream van on the school playground at 3.30pm, ahead of the year 6 event.

He will be open for business from anyone wishing to purchase an ice-cream for their child.
